Transformative Youth Work International Conference

Developing and Communicating Impact
4-6 September 2018 at Plymouth Marjon University

This will be the 1st major International conference focusing on the ‘Impact of Youth Work’.

AIMS:
To disseminate the latest research on the Impact of Youth Work
To promote the Impact of Youth Work
To stimulate debate about the processes which bring this impact about

Includes inputs from across Europe, USA, Australia and New Zealand as well as publication of the Erasmus+ funded 2 year comparative study of the Impact of Youth Work in Europe.

KEYNOTES:

Joachim Schild: (Former Head of European Youth Partnership) - ‘History of Youth Work Impact in Europe’

Dr Dimitris Ballas: ‘A Human Atlas of Europe - United in Diversity’

The conference is open to youth workers, youth work academics & trainers as well as policy makers.
Bursaries are available for non UK delegates

To register, submit a paper or for further information, see the following link: marjon.ac.uk